

MEDIC Implementation Guide for the HEAR+T Decision Aid

All materials described below are designed for the emergency medicine (EM) clinician audience.

TOOL	WHAT IS THIS TOOL?	WHAT THIS TOOL IS NOT	SUGGESTIONS FOR USE
Reference Cards	“At the elbow” quick references intended to: ⇒ Prompt use of this rule when appropriate ⇒ Remind about the rule components	x Explanation of WHY & HOW this rule was developed x Overview of MEDIC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> □ Distribute via email □ Post to internal clinical resource site □ Tape to computer monitors □ Post in clinician workstations □ Use as a “pocket reference”
One-Pager	“In situ” reference intended to: ⇒ Prompt use of this rule when appropriate ⇒ Display the full rule ⇒ List key references	x Explanation of WHY & HOW this rule was developed x Overview of MEDIC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> □ Distribute via email □ Post to internal clinical resource site □ Use as computer background □ Post in clinician workstations
Educational PowerPoint	⇒ Explanation of WHY MEDIC endorses use of this pathway & how key elements were developed ⇒ Overview of MEDIC	x Quick reference guide x Real-time clinical decision aid	Presentation @: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> □ Faculty/staff meetings □ Resident seminars □ Grand Rounds